

Changing world an image at a time

DREAMIMAGES is a boutique photographic studio based in Cleveland and specialises in weddings, portraits, and commercial imagery.

The studio was established in 2008 by multi-award winning master photographer, Melissa Anderson.

It is the culmination of 17 years of experience and the desire to create paramount imagery and unsurpassable service.

The studio is committed to making a difference to the world, one image at a time.

Dreamimages offers a broad range of photographic products and services for commercial and domestic clients from the Redlands region and internationally.

The studio offers location and studio services, and the studio has both a daylight and commercial studio space.

Dreamimages offers in-house retouching services, canvases, European art prints, acrylic products and the production of fine art albums and portfolios.

Melissa's images have been exhibited internationally, and have appeared in various publications.

She holds a Master of Photography with the AIPP, and has presented workshops internationally.

Throughout her career she has received numerous professional accolades including – 1999 AIPP Queensland Illustrative Photographer of the year; 2001 AIPP Queensland Fashion Photographer of the year; and 2001 AIPP Australian Advertising Photographer of the year.

Dreamimages is proud to celebrate the important moments in each client's life.

"We give them a moment in time to remember forever, and help customers celebrate their proudest achievements. We are proud to be nominated in the Redlands Chamber of commerce business awards, and we believe in giving back through the medium we love," Melissa said.
